Vendor Code of Conduct

Britannia Development Company (BDC) is a nationwide real estate field service company. Our commitment to serve our customers in a prompt, professional manner has allowed our company to grow throughout the years.

BDC uses both company employees and independent contractors to perform services to achieve our goals. This Code of Conduct is provided to ensure ethical standards in order to meet and exceed expectations in representing BDC and our customers in the community.

Definitions

"Vendor" is defined as any subcontractor or company, including its employees, agents, or subcontractors, performing services for or on behalf of BDC.

Conduct and Responsibility of Vendors

Ethical conduct is a manner of dealing fairly and honestly with BDC, fellow employees, customers and the public. Vendors must always be sensitive to the appearance of impropriety and do all possible not to harm or diminish the reputation of BDC and its customers.

By their signatures, vendors agree to abide by the following:

1. Vendor and vendor's employees, family members or contractors will not purchase a client property without the express written consent of BDC senior management. Such purchases may constitute a conflict of interest, and/or could cost BDC revenue and reputational losses.
2. Vendor will not use, or be under the influence of, alcohol or drugs while representing BDC. Tobacco products will not be used inside client properties assigned to the vendor.
3. Vendor will not subcontract services without written approval from BDC senior management. Vendors will contact BDC with any questions prior to proceeding with any repairs that may require another licensed contractor.
4. Vendor will remove all trash from the work site and leave client property in the same "white glove" condition in which it was found, upon completion of Vendor's services or repairs.
5. Vendor will promptly notify BDC of any delays or issues in completing work or meeting deadlines.

6. Vendors must maintain the highest ethical standards, be cost competitive, and place a premium on customer service.
7. Vendors at all times must be compliant with all applicable federal, state and local laws. Should investigative or disciplinary action be brought against vendor by a government regulatory agency, vendor will immediately notify BDC.
8. Vendor understands that all information provided for the completion of repairs on a client property must be kept confidential.
9. Illegal acts, including but not limited to fraud, money laundering, bribes or kickbacks will not be tolerated by BDC, and may, in BDC's exclusive discretion, constitute grounds for immediate termination of Vendor's Contract(s) with BDC.

By submission of this form I acknowledge and affirm that I am an authorized representative of the Vendor/company. I acknowledge that I have read and understand that this document is attached and incorporated into a part of the Contract with BDC, and that Vendor/company and its successors and permitted assigns will strictly adhere to this policy.

By my electronic signature on this document, I agree that I have signed and intended to sign this Vendor Code of Conduct on behalf of vendor, using electronic signature.

If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.
